Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent Madcow International Group Ltd. ("Seller"), who is a Hong Kong based vendor to Circuit City Stores, Inc. ("Debtor").

The Seller has sold certain goods to the Debtor, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, which have not been paid for and for which the Seller retains title. This letter constitutes a notice of demand for the return of certain goods purchased by the Debtor from the Seller. Please take notice that pursuant to California Commercial Code 2702, 11 U.S.C. section 546(c), and by virtue of the Debtor's insolvency, the Seller hereby demands the segregation and return of all goods identified in the Shipping Record Summaries attached herein as Attachment A (the "Goods") currently in the Debtor's possession and delivered to the Debtor on or after September 26, 2008 (for the avoidance of doubt, the Seller is not demanding the segregation and return of the goods specified in the Seller's commercial invoice nos. MAD080625A, MAD080828A and MAD080903A). Unless the Debtor authorize the return of the Goods immediately or, alternatively, confirm that the full value of the Goods will be offered by the Debtor to the Seller as an "Allowed Reclamation Amount" pursuant to the Orders made by Judge Kevin Huennekens, United States Bankruptcy Judge, on 13 November 2008, further appropriate measures will be taken.

Furthermore, the Seller has an administrative expense claim pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(9) for the value of goods provided to the Debtor within the twenty (20) days immediately prior to the petition date. The Seller intends to assert its section 503(b)(9) claims for the goods delivered between October 21, 2008 and November 9, 2008. Based on the Seller's best estimate, the amount of its section 503(b)(9) claim is US$452,794.40.

Please contact the undersigned immediately to make arrangements allowing the Seller to reclaim the Goods.

We look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Very truly yours,
